

Mr Curt Zuber

Mr Zuber has over 35 years' experience in banking and finance, treasury, risk management, and executive leadership, gained both in Australia and the USA.

Mr Zuber spent the majority of his career at Westpac where he served in several senior roles before completing his time there as Chief Executive Officer of Westpac Institutional Bank. Prior to that, he worked in Westpac's Group Treasury department for nearly 25 years, of which he served 16 years as Group Treasurer, and chaired the bank's Asset and Liability Committee. His earlier career included working for Household International in its Chicago and Sydney offices, with responsibilities for funding, liquidity management, trading, risk management, and hedging strategies.

Mr Zuber is a member of the Advisory Board of the Australian Office of Financial Management, which issues debt securities on behalf of the Australian Government. Mr Zuber is also the Chair of the Bestest Foundation and a director of the Gotcha4life Foundation.
